

Here to support companion animal community rescue organisations.

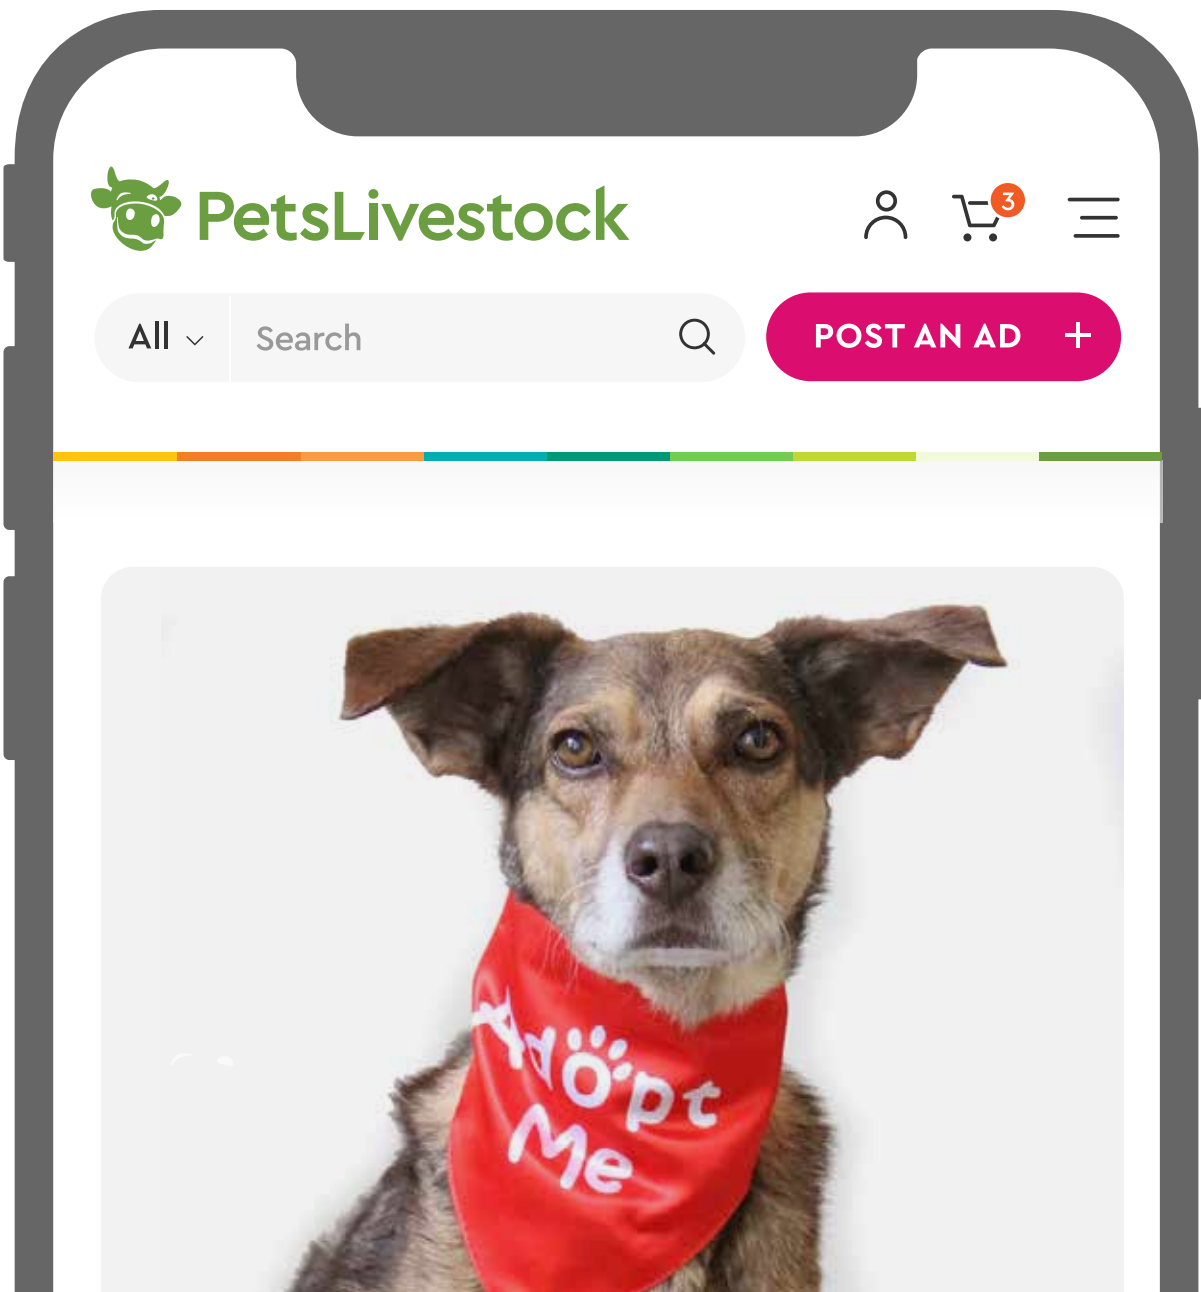

Australian owned and operated, we provide a unique platform where companion animals can be safely and ethically rehomed, where charity groups will be hosted and supported, partnerships fostered, events promoted and related goods and services bought and sold.

Online portal for uniting companion animals with pet lovers and hobby farmers.

A directory promoting local, regional and rural business.

A FREE hosting and advertising platform for registered not-for-profit rescue organisations to better help and support the rehoming of companion animals.

Events calendar promoting relevant community activities across Australia.

Unwavering commitment to animal welfare.

Our system is unique in Australia and aims to substantially increase awareness and the success rate of companion animals being rehomed. Everyone involved is required to prove their relevant registrations and compliance in accordance with State and Federal legislation.

- Source Number
- Microchip Number
- Vaccinated
- Desexed
- Breeder Number

Access to the PetsLivestock platform is absolutely free of charge for not-for-profit organisations registered with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC).

$0 Fees. $0 Commision. Free Membership.

The free access enables charity and not-for-profit organisations to better support the rehoming of companion animals, without incurring any costs of membership fees, advertising, or commission.

Your most trusted community hub for the pet lover and hobby farmer across Australia.

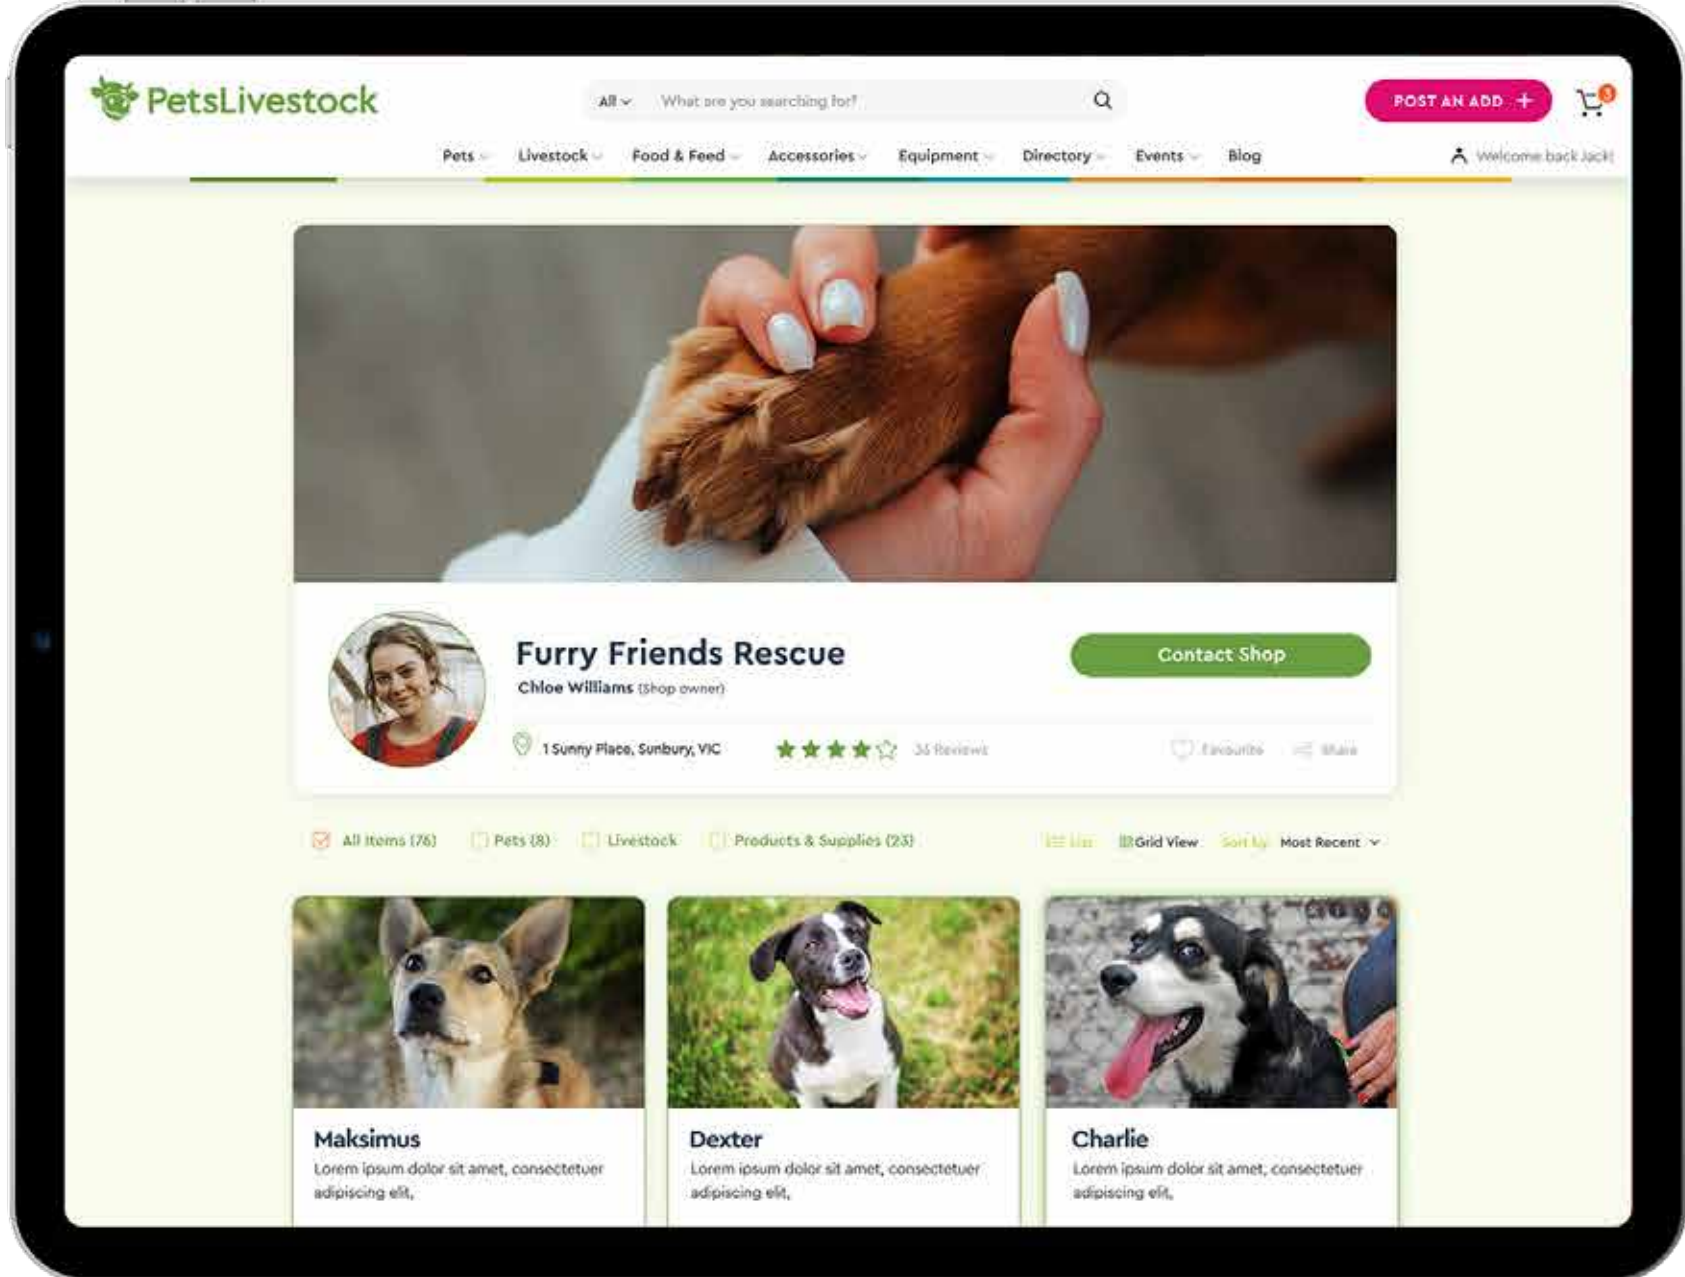

Our vision is very clear. To be the most trusted online community hub for the pet lover and hobby farmer in Australia. In order to support of our vision, we must create better solutions to the bigger challenges that companion animals and the people that care for them face across Australia.

- ✓ Foster the work of our partners to increase the rehoming of animals.
- ✓ Promote small and rural businesses to grow local economies.
- ✓ Connect the community to essential services, recreational facilities and industry events.
- ✓ Inspire the wider community to treat companion animals with respect and compassion

Increase your local visibility and boost your online presence.

Create your own shop front and start using it as your own functioning website today.

PetsLivestock gives you a better way to reach a new group of customers that are active in your local community now. Partner with PetsLivestock and start connecting with more people in the locations that matter to you.

Post an ad, list your business or promote an event.

Join our community hub today and start connecting with thousands of active users ready to support your cause.

Get your FREE membership

How we help.

- Reduce the number of pets being euthanised

• Increase the success rate of companion animals being rehomed

• Promote charities and increase their awareness across the community

• Reduce costs, by connecting animals to fosterers, adoptive parents and suitable forever home owners much faster

• Support the regulatory framework for the rehoming and selling of companion animals
- Offer a safe alternative to unregulated Marketplace sites

• Provide information and advice educating the public about responsible pet ownership

• Improve the transparency in the movement of animals

• Help connect shelters to relevant services and volunteers networks

• Support the prevention of cruelty to animals

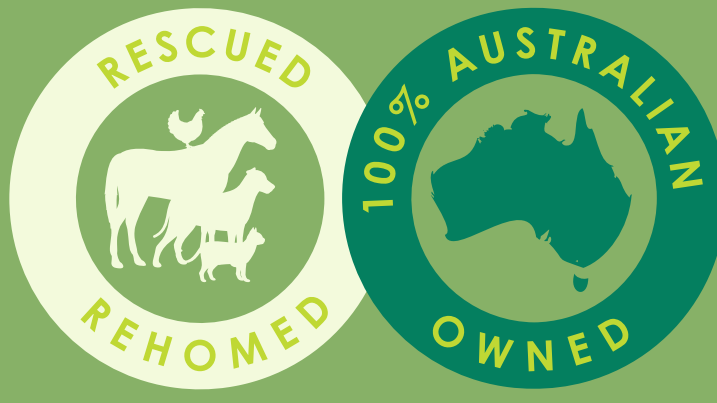

Having grown up on around animals on mum and dad's farm, I really can't imagine life without them. From dogs to ducks, highland cattle to horses, they were all there. As you watch them grow and play, developing that bond, is a reward in itself.

Marty Taylor
Co-Founder

For the Pet Lover. For the Hobby Farmer.

Our online platform is dedicated to the pets and livestock community. We are an advocate for charities and not-for-profit organisations while supporting rural and small businesses in the industry. We only promote ethical practices and ensure the welfare of animals is at the heart of our operations as we champion animal rescue.

- Open a Shop

Open a Shop

Free Listings

Pricing Plans

Seller Handbook
- Discover & buy

Gift Cards

Directory Search

Events

Editor's Pick
- Get to know us

About Us

Contact

Careers

Press

Terms & Conditions

Privacy Policy
- Our community

Advertise with us

Upcoming events
- Connect with us

Facebook

Instagram

YouTube

